WIRING IN PALACE IS FOUND UNSAFE

LONDON, Dec. 24. — (CP) — Electrical wiring throughout the Royal apartments at Buckingham Palace was in such a bad state that extensive re-wiring had to be carried out to make the palace safe.

Electrical circuits throughout the 690 rooms are to be completely overhauled. Modernization may take years.

City Traffic Claims Life Of Woman

Church Worker
Dies in Collision
With Automobile

Mrs. Ellen Johnson, 76, of Suite 8, 1075-07 street, was pronounced dead upon arrival at Royal Alexandra hospital shortly after 10 p.m. last night after being in collision with a car.

Howard Kennedy, 9602 Jasper avenue, driver of the car, was formally charged with manslaughter and read on bail.

In his statement to the police, Kennedy said he was proceeding south on 97 street at about 25 miles per hour.

As he was approaching 108 avenue, he saw a woman walking across, he said.

DASHED OUT
When she was about halfway across she stopped and looked as if she was waiting for him to pass. As he proceeded she suddenly dashed directly in front of the left fender, he declared.

He said he swerved sharply to avoid her but that the fender caught her and she was knocked to the street.

CHURCH WORKER
An ardent worker in church affairs, Mrs. Johnson had attended a Christmas tree party at Apostolic Lighthouse. She was returning home when the fatal accident occurred.

The streets at the point of impact were particularly dangerous with snow ridges and ice. The car came to a stop several feet from where she was knocked down, police said.

Mrs. Johnson is survived by two daughters, Mrs. James Wallace, 1075-07 street, and Mrs. Joseph Rock, of Westlock.

An inquest into the fatality may be held today.

The accident was investigated by Const. R. Maxwell, Lloyd Munson and Trevor Jones.

Hard Feelings Out Of Season

WANAUKE, N.J., Dec. 24. — (AP) — Police Chief Harry Post is convinced this is the season of goodwill.

A week ago he arrested two youths on charges of robbing a bus station. They now are in jail. Yesterday, the chief received a Christmas card from them saying "Merry Christmas just the same."

Bernhard To Visit

THE HAGUE, Dec. 24. — (Reuters) — Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands will leave here Jan. 2 to visit the Netherlands West Indies, Venezuela and Brazil and later Mexico and Canada, it was announced last night.

He has given evidence of being a deeply religious man.

POPE AILING
The Pontiff, wax-faced and white-lipped, seemed to have difficulty breathing under the weighty vestments. He was supposed to strike the Holy Door three times but had to be reminded by the master of ceremonies, Mgr. Mariano Dadi, to deliver the third blow. His Holiness apparently was late in the morning.

He was seen to have resources for the brief ceremony.

The struggle in which the church was embroiled at the hour of the holy ceremony by a call from the Communist Chamber of Labor for a general strike in Rome.

The labor group called the strike to protest police measures against a peasant meeting the night scheduled to coincide with the church ceremonies. The labor leaders condemned the strike.

Domestic Prices May Be Maintained

By Ronald A. Nicholson

OTTAWA, Dec. 24. — (CP) — Agriculture Minister J. G. Gardiner had a message of Christmas cheer for the Canadian farmer today.

He announced that Britain would be able to take enough Canadian bacon, probably 60,000,000 pounds, to prevent a slump in domestic prices, and also.

He also to handle the expected surplus of 80,000,000 pounds of Canadian cheese.

It was a definite ray of sunshine breaking through the fog of gloom which has surrounded Anglo-Canadian food contract negotiations of recent weeks.

The Canadian Meat Board, effective Jan. 2, would be authorized to pay $22.50 per 100 pounds of bacon, basis grade "A" Withshire sides, delivered at Canadian seaports, for shipments to Britain, he said.

The price was $3.50 under that paid by the Meat Board in previous years for the same grade.

SET SUPPORT PRICE
Gardiner told a press conference that "this probably won't be the price contained in the Anglo-Canadian contract." He indicated that it might be lower, possibly between 20 and 25 cents a pound.

The government's action means, in essence, that it was setting a domestic support price for the farmer's production.

It was doubtful that the move would mean cheaper bacon for the Canadian housewife. Packing houses would sell to the government at $22.50 only that quantity, which they could not dispose of at a better price on the domestic market.

Gardiner said, however, that Canadian food producers need have no fear of disposing of their entire surplus next year. The contract with Britain, expected to be signed next week, would take care of that, he said.

LET TRADE KNOW
"While negotiations respecting shipments to Britain in 1950 have not been completed, it is thought advisable to make this announcement now in order that hog producers and the packing industry may have the information before hog prices are established next week," he said.

It was reliably learned that the bacon contract would be worth somewhat more than $17,000,000 to Canadian producers.

Rain Drenches Bethlehem Road

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 24. — (AP) — Rain drenched Bethlehem today on the eve of the annual pilgrimage to the birthplace of Christ.

The downpour of the last 24 hours also mired the road through Arab territory from Jerusalem, over which pilgrims pass on their way to the scene of the nativity.

Excepting members of religious orders in the Holy City, not more than 400 or 500 United Nations personnel, diplomats and Red Cross aids are expected.

It was reported that the Holy Door at St. Peter's, similar ceremonies were held in Rome by officials at the three other patriarchal thrones — St. Paul's, outside the walls, St. John Lateran and St. Mary Major.

POLICE ALERTED
In an square outside St. Mary Major were mobilized 600 Roman police and carabinieri, summoned to prevent interference from the Chamber of Labor headquarters across the square. There the disordered peasant meeting had been scheduled after police banned a demonstration at the coliseum.

The meeting was cancelled when only about 300 persons were able to get through the police screen.

Long Weekend In Store For Edmontonians

Business and office areas will be held aside by most Edmontonians over Christmas with little doing in the business world locally from Saturday until Wednesday.

The big Christmas rush will be over for tired retail store staffs Saturday evening and there will be no re-opening until Wednesday morning. Most retail stores plan to remain open all day Wednesday, however, not observing the usual Wednesday half holiday.

Same schedule is being followed by city wholesale firms with the exception that majority of these will close at noon Saturday and not re-open until Wednesday morning.

UNTIL WEDNESDAY

All Provincial Government and Dominion Government offices close Friday evening and re-open Wednesday morning. Civic offices are on a similar schedule.

Moving picture shows and other forms of recreation, such as bowling alleys and billiard parlors will be open on Boxing Day, Tuesday. Regular transportation facilities will function as usual, with special bus services on Edmonton Transit System for holiday crowds.

Spending Christmas in the old home town is W. M. Fawcett, manager for Underwood Ltd. at Vancouver for the past five years. Mr. Fawcett was manager for the Underwood company in Edmonton for 25 years, previous to his transfer to the Pacific coast.

HAPPY TIMES for members of Glenora Skating Club on any weekend and particularly with holiday fellowship, is when they gather around fireplace after activities. Enjoying relaxation are Mrs. Fred Astle, Bob Blockett, Bill Warban, Miss T. MacKie and Fred Astle.

POULTRY POOL COMPLETES 23RD YEAR

MEETING CREEK, Dec. 24 —Meeting Creek Poultry Pool recently completed its 23rd consecutive year of operation. An Edmonton packing firm purchased the entire 90,000 lbs. of poultry, which was all trucked to Edmonton. Eighteen local men were employed in crating.

Roast Pork on Menu For Christmas at Jail

Spirit of Christmas will permeate even the grim confines of Fort Saskatchewan Provincial jail.

Both Sunday, and Monday will be observed as holidays, Warden J. D. McLean said.

Every inmate will be served with roast pork for the main meal on both days. There will be bacon and eggs for each prisoner as breakfast.

On Sunday, a special concert by the Red Salvation Army band from Edmonton, will be staged for the prisoners.

On Monday there will be a picture show in the dining hall. Four men under sentence to hang on Feb. 22 will also have special Christmas dinners but will not be able to attend the band concert and special moving picture show.

Now confined in death cells are Michael Joseph Hayes, Wilfred Leslie Nowell, Joseph Gibney and Hung Sung Chin, each convicted of murders committed in Edmonton in the past year.

Warden McLean said the four are "deserving".

Four prisoners recently received the best Christmas presents they could get, release on parole. Two men serving two-year sentences were released four months before normal sentences would have expired. Two others serving shorter terms had two months knocked off their time. They were released Dec. 21.

Crew Hits 'Gas' Well In Hurry

A sismograph crew struck gas in far too big a hurry near Athabasca the other day. Crew was drilling a shot hole for a dynamite blast when the bit struck a three-eighths-inch gas main that supplies the town of Athabasca with natural gas.

NO EXPLOSION

Fortunately there was neither explosion nor fire as gas flowed out of the broken pipe. Solid pressure of 175 pounds per cubic inch.

REPAIRS MADE

Repair gangs were on the spot in 10 minutes and gas service to the town was restored in a few minutes. A new section of pipe was welded in at the break.

Pipe line is operated by Athabasca Gas Lines Ltd., of which C. H. Withers is Lloydminster president.

In Edmonton today, Mr. Withers announced that his Withers Drilling Contractors Ltd. will drill 20 more oil wells in the Lloydminster area next year.

The firm drilled 20 wells in 1949, 15 of which are now either oil or gas producers.

All Peoples' Mission Meets Many Appeals

Hundreds of children, a veritable host of needy pensioners and hundreds of deserving but hard-up families will be remembered by All Peoples' Mission, United Church of Canada during the Christmas season.

Gift certificates have been selected to quantities, packages for well over 600 children have been packed for the worthy. There also will be the "White Gifts" from the various United Churches of the city, which will be distributed to the needy and the deserving.

Names of families come from various sources and, if not noted by other groups, and covered by the Social Service Exchange, are adequately noted. Many families are given over to people who frequent families, and this year 20,000 families are going about it in this regard.

One of the most colorful events of the Christmas season is the annual Christmas dinner at the Jasper House community. Followed closely by the one given to young people of the area.

Carols of children have been shipped, along with boxes of toys, to such places as Knapik Lake, B.C., so that even little Indian children have Christmas as well as winter, Paganos, Christmas. Gifts to various institutions, to various groups, all fill out a very busy day.

The Mission is exceedingly grateful to all who have helped in the past and to all who are helping now.

Church Council Issues Xmas Family Service

TORONTO—Fifty thousand copies of a family service for Christmas have been issued as an experiment here by the Canadian Council of Churches. They are intended for fathers and mothers who will gather their children around the fireplace on the Christmas tree to recount the story of Christ's birth.

The service is short and simple. It contains a prayer for the father to say, three familiar hymns, a story by the mother and the reading of the Scripture narrative of the Nativity.

Included in the service manual is a reference to the part played by various countries in the Christmas celebration. It recalls that even Communist Russia has its people.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, Saturday, Dec. 24, 1949

TODAY'S MESSAGE CHRISTMAS!

Over the cave in Bethlehem the star glinted in the sable sky. Shepherds in the fields heard the voice of angels: "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to men of goodwill." In the stable the Maid of Galilee brought forth her Child and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes. And the Wise Men knelt and offered gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. All this happened 2,000 years ago. Yet the scene is always new; for Christmas is eternally in the present. There are no shepherds now tending their flocks on the lonely hills. The Wise Men came and are gone. But the hearts of Christians remain filled with the shepherd's reverence. They come, ever-eager, with gifts to the Babe; they speak His name with love.

Christianity is the greatest miracle of history. And Bethlehem is its portent. The message of peace has been drowned out by centuries of sin and cruelty; but it never dies. At Christmas it rings out anew in triumph and glory. Bethlehem's tidings proclaim hope to the world. They give assurance of Christ's unborn companions. They pledge His eternal abiding in humble, faithful hearts.

There was the first Herod, puffed up with hatred, pride and greed, who wanted no part of the infant and sought to destroy Him. There are other Herods today who would drive Him from their lands, who condemn His name and all He stands for. But wherever the aged carols are heard, wherever churches are open, eager throngs will gather to greet the Saviour. They will remember and harken to His words: "Learn of Me because I am meek and humble of heart."

Humility and meekness are not the virtues of the rapacious and greedy. Humility does not march with conquerors; meekness is never on the lips of the oppressor. But the truth remains: in humility and meekness are the secrets of true greatness and power. They are the hallmarks of that love with which Christ won the world. They are the qualities through which His followers in every age have carried His cause to victory. Christmas is a festive occasion, a time of universal rejoicing, of gift-giving, of happy family reunions. But whoever is not able to stand with a humble and contrite heart before the Child of Bethlehem will not know its true blessing or glimpse the wonder of its ageless miracle.

Mormons Revive Church Steeples

OXDEN, Utah—Steeples are in style again on Mormon churches. After 30 years, steeples will once again become an architectural feature of all new ward chapels and state tabernacles of the Latter-day Saints.

Steeples were included in LDS plans of a new chapel in Oxnard, Calif. Steeples, last used mostly during the last generation.

The move was to make religious edifices readily distinguishable as places of worship.

Distant beams from the East,
With the dawn of redeeming grace,

Israelis Offer To Open Road For Pilgrims

JERUSALEM—The Israeli government has offered to open the five-mile desert road to Bethlehem to Jewish pilgrims planning to attend Christmas rites at the site of Christ's birth.

Last year pilgrims were barred by Egyptian authorities from using the short route and were forced to travel a long circuitous Arab Legion road.

The decision this year rests with the Jordan government. It is believed that Amman authorities may decline to make the short route available to pilgrims because of the danger from minefields left behind by evacuating Egyptian forces and not yet cleared.

Dishpan Experiments Clue To Blood Stream Diseases

By James Whart

United Press Staff Correspondent

PITTSBURGH.—(UP)—Medical science, dipping into the greasy dishpans of a million housewives, has come up with what might someday wipe out hardening of the arteries.

An amazing story of how research scientists have begun experiments with detergents, the popular soap substitutes, to find a way to flush fat out of blood vessels was told here by Dr. A. C. Ivy, Dr. Ivy, medical research worker at the University of Pittsburgh, told a group that experiments with certain animals have been deemed successful, but no work has been done with humans yet.

Speaking at the University of Pittsburgh, Dr. Ivy explained that hardening of the arteries begins with the collection of excess fat along the inner walls of blood vessels.

FLOW CLOGGED

When the fat is in the soft stage, he said, pieces of it may become dislodged from where it has been piling up. Entering the blood stream, the pieces often reach the heart or brain and cause heart attacks or strokes by clogging the flow of blood.

As the fat hardens, the arteries become brittle, aging the vessel and perhaps causing an early death.

Dr. Ivy said the dishpan really was responsible for the medical experiments. Researchers, he said, seeing what detergents did to grease on dishes, decided it would be ideal for "washing" fat off the body's a single field of medicine regarding which we don't have a real basis for hope.

Medicine has made great progress in the fight against infantile paralysis, mumps, heart disease, arthritis and other major killers of citizens, he said.

"We are at a turning point right now in the history of medical research," the scientist asserted. "We have conquered practically all of the acute and infectious diseases."

Living Costs Rise To Peak In Year

OTTAWA, Dec. 24.—(CP)—The year 1949 will go down as the year the cost-of-living index hit its highest peak in history, breaking the record established after the First World War.

But it will also go down as the year when rising living costs after the Second World War leveled off and bowed to the line for a better-than-12-month period.

The living cost graph which shot upwards alarmingly in 1947 and continued a steady increase in 1948 moved in 1949 not with jags, but ladders. During the year it fluctuated only 2.2 points.

This compared with gains of 11.5 points in 1948 and 21.5 the previous year, when lifting of wartime price controls brought fears of inflation. And as the new year approaches, the index for November 1—the latest date for which figures are available—was 161.7, only 2.1 points higher than last Jan. 1.

Canadians have some foundation for hope that the index will continue to hold the line, if not decrease. Although recent decontrol is expected to boost it somewhat, the last three months for which figures are available showed a downward trend from the all-time high of 162.8 last August 1.

Fluctuations in the air division, which go to make up the composite index showed only a few marked trends. Food costs declined in the early spring, but quickly rose to an all-time high in August.

Rents and clothing showed steady but comparatively minor increases. The manufacturing division, after a slight jump last January, remained fairly constant and the home furnishings and services division remained practically unchanged. Fluctuations in the fuel and lighting division were slight and feebly.

The combined index, and the six indexes which comprise it, are figures based on the premise that average living costs between 1926 and 1928 equal 100. The air division are weighted according to the amount of the family dollar actually spent under the various classifications in those years.

Club Letter Election Fuel

LONDON, Dec. 24.—(CP)—An anonymous letter to Junior Carlton Club stationery has created bad feeling between Socialists and Conservatives.

The letter, addressed to Sir Stafford Cripps as chancellor of the exchequer, was read at a political meeting by Harold Wilson, president of the board of trade. It said:

"Make Jack a dull boy, I will continue to refuse business."

The Carlton Club, an exclusive organization with 2,000 members, is associated with the Conservative party. The club's chairman, Sir Ernest Cooper, issued a statement disavowing members from whom views expressed in the unsigned letter.

But Socialists insisted that many British business men are refusing to do business with the Mexican government. Conservatives, on the other hand, were incensed that a government minister would draw public attention for political purposes, to an anonymous letter.

'Great Fraud' Dead At 67

GRINWICH, Conn., Dec. 24.—(AP)—Howard C. Hopson, who pyramided a $300,000 investment into a billion-dollar utility company, died Thursday at the age of 67. The stock market crash of 1929 exposed the flimsy structure of his financial empire. Finally, in January, 1930, the huge company he into Company—filed a petition for receivership. Still fraud charges went Hopson to jail, since his release from prison in 1934 he has been living at a seclusion. At one time his personal fortune was estimated at $1,000,000. It was estimated he died in modest circumstances. Leading accountants and lawyers of the United States were stumped by the labyrinthine manoeuvres by which Hopson parlayed a $300,000 investment into the huge company.

OIL Join Forces In Oil Search

By Don Elach

Three companies prominent in the Alberta oil search have joined forces for exploration in the northwest section of Alberta and the adjoining portion of British Columbia.

The area involved covers 1,000,000 acres to which Pacific recently acquired the conservation.

It starts 30 miles north of the town of Peace River and stretches northward in the Fort Vermilion area, Saskatchewan work on the area will start early next year.

Pacific will still hold a fifty per cent interest in the acreage with twenty-five per cent interest going to both Tidewater and Sunoco.

Meanwhile, in the British Columbia area, two other large firms have joined forces with Pacific and Associates for the exploration of a 1,500,000 acre tract in that province's Peace River Block.

The partners here are Halibut Bay Gas and Oil Co., the Canadian subsidiary of Continental Oil Co. (U.S.A.) and Union Oil Company of California. Each will hold a quarter interest in the British Columbia venture.

Continental participated in the Pacific River block program as the Peace River Natural Gas Co. and Union Oil Company of California.

DRILLING STARTED EARLIER

Deep test drilling on the property was started earlier this year.

The well is now drilling in the neighborhood of 5500 feet and has encountered gas flows from formations at higher levels. Further drilling is planned for the coming year.

Imperial has completed its 92nd well in the Redwater field with Eugene No. 27 which was battered a 2212 feet. Initial production for the well is 1200 barrels daily.

Another location has been struck.

Prairies 'Last Oil Frontier'

NEW YORK, Dec. 21 (CP)—Oil men are calling the Canadian prairie the "last oil frontier" and have been the last of frontier of North America. The National Petroleum Association today in a report on Canada's oil scene.

Already Alberta's proved oil reserves have passed 100,000,000 barrels—and many believe the province has five times that much.

"Independent United States oil men are stirring uneasily at the prospect of a valuable source of Canadian oil," the report continues. "The U.S. military men, on the other hand, are pleased to them, oil in Canada is oil in North America. It is oil that, in time of war, need not be feared to the United States by water from distant lands. It is strategic oil, vital for defense of the hemisphere."

Granting that the western provinces can produce enough to supply the needs of the U.S. as a whole, the report says, "the U.S. military men, on the other hand, are pleased to them, oil in Canada is oil in North America. It is oil that, in time of war, need not be feared to the United States by water from distant lands. It is strategic oil, vital for defense of the hemisphere."

B of M Sums Up Canada's Progress

MONTREAL, Dec. 21. (CP)—Canada's consumer market has broadened and become more stable the last 10 years, with employment at a relatively high level and income well distributed, the Bank of Montreal said in its year-end report issued yesterday.

Summing up "the most considerable change in Canada's history," the report outlines the possible influences behind the nation's recent growth.

"Over the 10-year period there has been a heavy capital investment in new plants, machinery and equipment," the report states, "and since the war Canada has been able to expand and modernize its productive facilities at probably a more rapid rate than any other country in the world."

The bank found most national production in 1949 approximately 30 per cent higher than in 1939, exports greater by 40 per cent, and consumer goods by 50 per cent.

Granting that the western provinces can produce enough to supply the needs of the U.S. as a whole, the report says, "the U.S. military men, on the other hand, are pleased to them, oil in Canada is oil in North America. It is oil that, in time of war, need not be feared to the United States by water from distant lands. It is strategic oil, vital for defense of the hemisphere."

Dom. Government Deposits Up

OTTAWA, Dec. 21 (CP)—Domestic government deposits increased $2,500,000 to $1,000,000,000 during the week ended Dec. 21, the Bank of Canada revealed today in its weekly financial statement.

Chartered bank deposits decreased $2,000,000 to $1,100,000,000, while notes in circulation rose $1,271,000 to $1,100,000,000.

OTTAWA, Dec. 21 (CP)—The number of cars loaded for export from Canada decreased during the week ended Dec. 21, the Bank of Canada revealed today in its weekly financial statement.

Refrigerator Output At Peak

OTTAWA, Dec. 21 (CP)—A report for production of electric refrigerators was set in September.

The Bureau of Statistics reported today that Canadian factories turned out 12,000 refrigerators in the month compared with 12,000 in the same month of 1948.

The total output for the year up to the end of last month was 120,000 compared with 120,000 in the first nine months of 1948.

Production of washing machines was down to 2,500 in September from 3,000 a year ago. However, the 10-month period saw 25,000.

New Windshield Glass Cuts Headlight Glare

NEW YORK—A glass-maker has come up with a new automobile windshield glass that will take some of the sting out of the glaring headlights of oncoming cars.

Since "angled beam" headlights were developed some years back, the average car's main lights have been so dazzling they are nearly always a great annoyance to motorists and often a serious danger on the roads.

To meet this problem at least part way, the Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Co. has produced a new glare-reducing safety plate glass for windshields. It has a slight bluish-green tint, even added to the raw material mixture largely from the ticks.

The new glass has been road-tested and has been found to cut glare materially, whether from headlights or the sun. No claim is made, however, that the product will do too much toward protecting a driver's eyes from the direct rays of a rising or setting sun.

NO NEED TO DIM
Drivers who have used the glass say they don't particularly care any more whether oncoming cars dim their headlights or not. They say the tinted windshield softens the glare considerably.

Regular windshield glass allows 88 per cent of available light to pass through. Libbey-Owens' new product lowers this figure to 82 per cent. That is just four per cent above the minimum demand set by state laws for safety glass.

The new glass has a second feature—it blocks about 15 per cent of the sun's heat-producing infra-red rays.

Not too many can realize that doctors believe actual physical damage is done to the eyes by the direct rays of bright headlights. And according to the Automobile Club of New York, such glare can cause temporary blindness for as long as three seconds.

MAJOR ANNOYANCE
The National Safety Council says the high beams most drivers

SMOKE BILLOWS from "portable fire hazard" developed by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation as CMHC fire marshal J. P. Clarke demonstrates the dangers of over-fusing the electrical circuit of a house to Mrs. A. Swan of Ottawa and her son, Dwight, tenants at one of the 40,000 housing units under the administration of the Corporation. Specially-treated insulation on the wires of the panel, which corresponds to the electrical system in a house, starts to smoke when an improper size of fuse is used, and the circuit is overloaded by the use of appliances requiring a greater amount of electricity than the wires are intended to carry.

Stitch in Time Holds For House Painting

The old adage about a "stitch in time" was never more appropriate than in the case of house painting. The experts tell us not to wait until our houses are desperately in need of a new coat of paint, for if we do not only will the dried-out wood soak up more paint, the bill for labor, the highest feature of any job of painting, will be much greater.

This means you will want to give a first-quality paint that will give the maximum service possible, for leaving in mind that labor is responsible for some sixty to eighty per cent of the cost of painting. The better coverage a coat of paint gives and the easier it is to apply, the less labor it will take to do the job.

It is wise to avoid the use of paint with a short life involving high maintenance costs and labor charges. This applies especially to exterior painting, where periodic repainting is essential for maintenance.

There is a great temptation to cut down the expense of painting by using cheap brands of paint, which cannot be relied upon to give protection for an adequate period. The false economy of this saving in first cost is apparent if the total annual cost of maintenance is calculated.

This involves the following items: (1) The labor and incidental costs of preparing the surface

Any Port in Storm When A-Bombs Come

LONDON—(CP)—In case of atomic war, it will be 15 times safer in a shelter than in the street.

When it is one of these atomic bombs that is being built down the air shafts of the Second World War, it will be better than nothing.

Senator Tamm, parliamentary secretary to the House of Commons, said today that the House of Commons has decided to build a shelter for its members. It is three times better to be in your house than to be in the open, and four times better to be in a shelter than to be in your own house.

"In other words, it is 15 times better to be in this kind of shelter of the 1930s than to be in the open," he said. "It is not complete protection, but it's better than nothing."

Caution Urged In Painting Steel Frames

With the increasing use of steel window frames and casements, it is well to observe several important points. If rusting has developed externally on such areas, the paint should be stripped off entirely and the whole surface cleaned for painting.

When a good quality paint is used, however, the frame should be looked over for local defects which should be scraped down to bright metal ready for repainting. Care should be taken to keep the paint from the welded joints where the paint may have been filled by the flowing of steel formed during the welding.

These joints should be thoroughly cleaned down to bright metal before repainting, and when repainting, care must be taken that the paint is worked into every part of the joint.

"The Store Santa believes in"

IT IS 100 years since beautiful strains of "It Came Upon A Midnight Clear" were first heard, but as choir singer Ruth Culverne, 1114-83 avenue knows, they remain popular today.

Beautiful Carol Is 100 Years Old

Prize in song for the Prince of Peace will reach its crescendo a few hours hence in churches, homes and in the streets of Edmonton.

Carol singers, in the purity of their tender years, and earnest Christian adults will raise their voices in harmonious jubilation in celebrating the nativity of Christ, the infant King.

While the commemoration of his birth approaches its 2,000th year it will be of interest to many that one of the beautiful carols they are singing in this praise this year marks a full century since its beautiful words were written.

SUNG HERE IN 1877

"It Came Upon A Midnight Clear," first found expression in these words, written by Rev. Edmund Hamilton Sears, of the First Parish Church at Wayland, Mass., in 1840.

Mr. Sears, a New England farmer who grew to love the beauty of his state by writing poetry and he matured he adapted his poem to a tune called simple "Carol" written by Richard Storrs Willis.

These names will be familiar to many who examine their hymnals.

To certify when the inspiring carol was first sung in Edmonton would be a tremendous task of research and at best would end in doubt.

The carol was first sung just one century ago, on Christmas Eve, December 24, 1840.

Like the rest of the nation, the sleepy little town of Wayland, Massachusetts, was getting ready for Christmas.

The usual holiday church services were being planned at the first parish (Unitarian) church.

Mr. Sears asked the young people of his parish to come to the parish to sing Christmas Eve songs. They came Christmas Eve to recite his new song—so it could be sung Christmas Day.

The original manuscript of the carol became a priceless document.

Christmas Gifts Fond Memories

What would you want for Christmas if you were a kid again?

Just think it over... and from your answer it's to chance to see you'll find you are still a kid at heart.

When Bulletin reporters casually asked the question of people they met yesterday, they found people don't change much with the years.

The men-as boys-would want rifles and knives; the women-as girls-would want dolls, but one woman said she always wanted an electric train.

And nobody asked for two front teeth.

Joe Douglas, Edmonton Transit Station, 14 want a pair of sneakers more than anything else. I got a pair skates. As a person from the Simpson, the great defense star with Kokomo hockey team of 1922.

Jack Penner, cafe manager, 16 I want a box of seven I'd want Santa to bring me a jackknife. I remember getting a knife for Christmas when I was about 10. I had a knife and I was always with me. I had a knife and I was always with me.

REMEMBERS RIFLE

Leslie Boyer, apartment house owner, I like would be my choice again if I were a 10-year-old boy. I've still got the 22 rifle my dad gave me for Christmas an awful long time ago.

Ken Baker, laborer, I always wanted a bicycle more than anything else when I was a kid. I still got on, too.

Mrs. Irene Gibson, 1018 - 107 street, society, I always wanted a bicycle more than anything else when I was a kid. I still got on, too.

Tom Steele, civil servant, Alcoholic department-A bike. When I was a kid I wanted a bicycle so badly I used to dream I had one. I'd be riding along the street and all of a sudden my bike would collapse in a thousand pieces.

Kay Mulick, 550 - 101 avenue, waitress-But me down for "everything." That's what I always said I wanted as a child, and I haven't changed a bit.

Ross Anker, 1040 - 83 street, housewife - A doll. A lovely golden-haired doll. As a child I loved them.

Marsh Hodgins, composing room foreman, after today's big paper -

THIS WAS A picture just as it was taken. It shows how to work at a camera. The man and woman are standing in front of a camera.

I have lost all interest in toy printing.

Mrs. Ron Nidder, 6511 64 avenue, I always wanted skates more than anything else. I was always trying to skate, and I couldn't get a good pair until I was 10. With our folks buying for nine kids, I had to wait until I grew into a pair.

Bruce Matheson, city parks department, An air gun. Our boy worked on us for a solid year, and that's what I always wanted.

Ira White, city building inspector, Santa Claus-because he's got skaters.

Blade Shears Side Of Auto

Harold Chastlen, 1115-53 street, yesterday suffered fatal cuts and abrasions when the side of his car was sheared from end to end while passing a truck driven by Owen C. Lewis, 1248-55 avenue.

Planned at close quarters on 201 street, Chastlen did not notice a protruding blade of a bulldozer which was loaded on the truck.

MIDNIGHT MAGIC OF CHRISTMAS EVE THRILLS YOUNG'UN

SPARKLY CHRISTMAS TREE laden with exciting parcels keeps a tiny tot like Susan Hagelstein positively snugly with suspense. Susan, junior member, Mrs. George Hagelstein, is Santa Claus' right-hand man, to know just what jolly Father Christmas will bring down the chimney tonight. The Sandman has promised to let her see early in the morning.

SISTERS SHARE TREE DECORATING FUN XMAS EVE

TOO MUCH PRE-CHRISTMAS worrying and nibbling is wearing young Carol Ferguson right down to a pretty little frazzle. Her last interest or pleasure Santa Claus would help from her mother, Mrs. E. M. Ferguson. They've prepared a huge plate of Christmas goodies for the night's special. Mrs. Ferguson is sitting on the rug, reading to Jimmy and Myrtle. Jimmy is sitting on the rug, looking at the book. Myrtle is sitting on the rug, looking at the book.

'TIS THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS . . . WIDGETS WAIT

STOCKINGS ARE HUNG from the chimney-piece and mother, Mrs. E. M. Ferguson, reads the story of Christmas to her night-shirted young son, Jimmy, left, and Myrtle, right. A creature, is stirring on mother reads about Hunchbacked Santa, Claus and his eight reindeer. Jimmy would like to wait up to see if Hunchback, the Reindeer, really has a red nose, and brother Myrtle has plans for a complete investigation of Santa's point. Mother's having a job convincing them Santa won't come unless they're asleep in their beds.

Unfaithful Husband Finds Wife Straying

DEAR MISS DIX: Several months ago I had an affair with a young woman. I sought divorce because my wife was always complaining and nagging at me. I made a mess of things and cannot now find my job.

My wife is now in the city and I find out for almost a year that she has been with a man. I am now in the city and I find out for almost a year that she has been with a man. I am now in the city and I find out for almost a year that she has been with a man.

She admits that he is going her the love and companionship that I have never given her. They have been together for some time and she is now pregnant. I am now in the city and I find out for almost a year that she has been with a man.

COULD anything be more appropriate than the independent miracle NOLAN, for dancing the New Year 1950?

Published this have always been great favorites, but in the past there have been a little hard to take care of, they married, they waited, they looked forward to the end of the evening. But when the stars came and fresh air through the party.

It's amazing in white or black or red—but his very pink or blue or champagne. Choose either a long or short length—both are smart.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

May your holiday be merry, your tree laden with good things and your happiness unending.

Simple pleasures of the old-fashioned, homespun variety are still the most enjoyable at Christmas time, even in this streamlined age.

So in the modern manner, with old-fashioned sincerity, we say...
